The FAS has denied reports of an indexation of utility rates from 1 July

Reports of an additional indexation of utility rates from 1 July are untrue, the FAS (Federal Antimonopoly Service) press service reported. "The annual indexation of rates will take place on 1 October, and the level of changes will not exceed the level established by the government order," the agency stated. The FAS noted that it will monitor the rate-setting process in the regions. If violations are detected, the service will exclude funds that were unjustifiably included from the rates.
