FAS plans to freeze cross-subsidization in the energy sector this year

The Federal Antimonopoly Service expects to achieve a freeze on cross-subsidization this year, Dmitry Vasiliev, the head of the service's electric power regulation department, said at the St. Petersburg International Legal Forum. Vasiliev recalled that the volume of cross-subsidization was recently fixed at RUB 239 billion, and differentiated tariffs (differentiation of tariffs for the population depending on consumption volumes in 76 constituent entities of the Russian Federation was previously introduced - IF) helped to contain it by RUB 32 billion.
