Rosseti wants to construct a single fiber optic line for ₪80 billion

The state-owned electric grid holding Rosseti proposes to construct a single telecommunications line with the required fiber optic capacity within ten years to replace the fiber optic communication line suspension that has fallen into an unsatisfactory condition. At the same time, Rosseti wants to become the owner of the backbone fiber optic communication line, and transfer the maximum resource of optical fibers (OF) in the single backbone cable to Rostelecom for a long-term lease.
