The State Duma approved the bill on extrajudicial collection of debts for housing and communal services in the first reading

According to the document, management companies and resource supplying organizations will be able to contact notaries to obtain an enforcement order, which is sufficient to begin the debt collection process.

As follows from the explanatory note to the document, it is aimed at reducing the debt for housing and communal services (according to the Ministry of Construction as of October, this is RUB 833 billion), as well as reducing the burden on the courts. According to the developers of the bill, in 2022, the courts considered more than 10 million cases on the collection of such debts.
