Tverenergo's power engineers prepared the electric grid complex for the fire hazard period

In anticipation of the fire danger period, the branch of Rosseti Centre - Tverenergo carried out a set of works aimed at ensuring reliable energy supply and stable functioning of the energy system. This was reported by the Informationbureau telegram channel. Power engineers carried out unscheduled inspections of fire-hazardous sections of overhead lines. To prevent the occurrence of ground fires and damage to power line poles, Tverenergo's employees cleared power line routes from trees and shrubs, dry vegetation and combustible debris, and laid mineralized strips.
